

My client is Kate McDowell, my fiancée. The website will be our wedding page where people can find pictures and information about the upcoming wedding. The website will contain our registry to make it easy for people to find gift information. It will be centered around photos and be visually appealing.